THREE STRAIGHTS FOR NORMAL

BAPTIST UNIVERSITY AND SACRED HEART EAST CENTRAL BOYS.

O. B. U., 5—E. C. S. N., 12
O. B. U., 4—E. C. S. N., 12

Sacred Heart, 1—E. C. S. N., 2

The most successful trip ever taken by an aggregation from the E. C. S. N. has just been completed by the base ball boys. To take all of three games away from home is not as easy to do as it is to read about how it was done. However hard this feat is, the Ada boys did accomplish it and landed in Ada Saturday night feeling that still they might down one or two other aspiring squads.

The first game was played at Benson Park, Shawnee, with the Oklahoma Baptist University. The University boys put up a good, lively scrap but their pitchers could not stop the slugging of the Ada boys. Two and three base hits were the rule, not the exception. Pat Jones pitched fine ball for Ada, giving only six hits. A few errors gave O. B. U. five runs.

The second game with the dipping brethren was not so much a slugging affair as it was a bold robbery. The Baptist catcher was good, and, to hear the O. B. U. boys talk, you would think no ball player could ever steal a base on him. This, however, was a time when his reputation fell like the drooping spirit of a "shame weed." The Ada boys stole bases so fast and furiously that O. U. B. threatened to send to town for a new police force. Roddie got no less than five stolen bases to his credit, and missed stealing home by exactly one and one-fourth of an inch. When the fray had ended and the clouds of dust had settled away, the score board showed Ada 12 but this time Shawnee had only 4.

The game of games came off Saturday with Sacred Heart Academy at Konawa. Ada was first at bat. McCain walked, stole second, was sacrificed to third by Roddie, and scored on an attempted sacrifice by McMillan, the ball going through the catcher. In the second inning Houpt scored again for Ada on an error, and a hit. Sacred Heart scored in the fifth. Brother Albert walked, stole second, and scored on an overthrow to third base by Roddie.

The game was almost free from hits. Sacred Heart getting 2 and Ada 3. McDaniel, Tolbert and Ligon did the hitting for Ada.

The Ada boys were the least nervous due to the fact that both of our pitchers were worked down and had sore arms. Jones worked for four innings and had to stop. Ligon finished the game.

All the boys had a good time and are anxious to conquer other fields.

O. B. U. will play here next Thursday and Friday. They expect to strengthen their team and get revenge for the ducking we gave them in Shawnee. WILL THEY DO IT?

The line up for the games:
McDaniel, catcher; Tolbert, first base; Houpt, second base; McCain, short stop. McMillan, third base; Brents, right field; Roddie, center field; Buttram, left field; Jones, pitcher; Ligon, pitcher.

BIG VICTORY FOR TEDDY AND WILSON

PENNSYLVANIA PRIMARY FULL OF SURPRISES FOR ALL CONCERNED.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 14.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt's sweeping victory in Pennsylvania at Saturday's primary election kept growing today as the returns continued to come in.

Incomplete returns from every district give the former president sixty-five of the state's seventy-six delegates in the national convention. Roosevelt supporters are claiming sixty-seven and later returns may carry the figures to that total. Colonel Roosevelt won fifty-three of the sixty-four district National delegates and his followers elected enough delegates to the state convention to give them control. The state convention will name twelve delegates at large.

Gov. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey has had no organized opposition and will have seventy-four of seventy-six delegates from Pennsylvania in the democratic national convention. In the Eleventh congressional district the two democrats elected are favorable to Harmon, but they are not pledged.

Politicians look upon the triumph of Roosevelt with astonishment. The supporters of the former president were without a state organization. The regular republican organization, headed by United States Senator Penrose, who has withstood the fury of many political storms, received a crushing defeat in the loss of control of the state convention. It is the first time in the present generation that it has lost that control. In addition to naming the twelve delegates at large, the convention will select thirty-eight Presidential electors, four candidates for Congressmen at large and candidates for state treasurer and Auditor General, all to be voted for at the November election. The significance of the Roosevelt victory can be realized when it is remembered that the delegates in the state convention elect the national committeeman. At present Senator Penrose holds this position. It was said by a prominent member of the state committee tonight that some of the Roosevelt delegates elected are regular organization men who, while voting for Roosevelt delegates, will still stand by the state organization.

Gov. Wilson had an easy time in winning seventy-four of the seventy-six delegates to the Baltimore convention. At present there are two democratic state organizations in Pennsylvania and each has endorsed the New Jersey governor for president.

Figures at hand indicate that the "reorganized" democratic faction, headed by George W. Guthrie of Pittsburgh and Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer, elected a majority of their delegates in opposition to the regular faction headed by James M. Guffey. Each faction has called a state convention at Harrisburg on the same day. Negotiations have been pending for a single convention, and it is not known whether the primary result will hasten harmony.

All the political parties in the state had candidates for congress in the thirty-two districts and also nominated candidates for the legislature. The democratic members in congress who came up for renomination were generally successful, but there were a number of surprises in the ranks of the republicans. One of these was the defeat of Reuben O. Moon in one of the Philadelphia districts by an independent republican.

In Pittsburgh John Dalzell, long a member of the National house, is not sure of being returned, according to the latest returns. He is opposed by M. Clyde Kelly, a prominent independent in the last legislature.

HEARST SAYS HE WILL PROVE CHARGES

Omaha, Neb., April 14.—William Randolph Hearst, in federal court in Omaha has filed an answer to the $500,000 suit of former Governor Charles N. Haskell of Oklahoma, growing out of charges printed by Hearst against Haskell in the campaign four years ago. Hearst's answer is plain and to the point. He makes acknowledgment to having printed all the things with which he is charged and declares that every charge is true and that he will so prove when the case comes to trial.

Haskell filed the suits in Omaha where he secured service upon Mr. Hearst, and for three years the case has been delayed by demurrers and answers. Trial probably will be had at the present term of court.

LITTLE CHANCE FOR INDIAN ENROLLMENT BILL

Washington, D. C., April 12.—That no legislation looking to a re-opening of the rolls of the Five Civilized Tribes will be attempted in the remaining days of this session of congress now seems almost certain. Congressman Carter's bill, which provides for the possible enrollment of perhaps 500 persons, and upon which hearings before a subcommittee of the house Indian committee have already been had will likely not be reported out by the full committee before adjournment, which is looked for sometime in June.

Governor Dick Locke of the Choctaw nation, has already returned to Oklahoma, as has Chickasaw National Attorney George Dick Rodgers of Muskogee; the four Choctaw delegates who have enjoyed the winter season at the national capital upon a $10 per diem basis, have likewise folded their tents and quietly stolen away to Oklahoma to dream through the long summer months of another winter of content in Washington; members of the house Indian committee relieved over the successful passage of the Indian appropriation bill, the most economical in a decade, are now turning their thoughts to visions of re-election; the baseball season is close at hand and the warm spring sunshine is not conducive to stir the blood of the members of congress to begin a long, hard battle over the enrollment question this late in the session.

Political fences are in need of fixing in various parts of the country and the members of the Indian committee are not disposed to open up a subject which is bound to create dissension and which might terminate in their political undoing upon the very eve of the congressional primaries and therefore, any contemplated enrollment legislation will probably be laid aside until next winter, when it is thought some sort of measure to provide for a limited re-opening of the five tribes rolls will be favorably reported out by the Indian committee, which has such legislation in charge.

Take a little SODA for your Stomach's Sake

This advice certainly holds good with everyone this sort of weather

Soda served at our fountain is more than a tasty thirst-quenching beverage. It is tonic and refreshing and every glass a strengthener for the stomach.

Our Soda is absolutely pure, strengthening, reviving, refreshing and healthful. It "lands direct" on the "dry" spot and quenches thirst as nothing else will, because we serve it at just the right temperature.

WHO EXPECTS TO GO TO MACON?

A typographical error in the News some days ago has caused some misunderstanding regarding the rates to the Macon reunion. As it appeared in the paper the rate from Oklahoma City will be $12.50 and from Ada $19.45. This led many to think Oklahoma City is being shown a great preference, when as a matter of fact such is not the case. The figures should have read $22.50. From this it will be seen that Ada fares as well as any other place.

A. M. Crow, commander of the local camp of veterans, has had the matter of a special coach from Ada under discussion with the road and is assured that if a sufficient number will take advantage of the occasion to justify it, a special coach will be set off for the use of the Ada crowd. He is anxious to know at once who are expecting to go from this place, and requests that all such leave their names with the editor of the News who will turn them over to him. If a car is not made up at Ada, all going from here will have to take their chances on a crowded car when they take the Rock Island at Holdenville.

Notice, Elks.

I am in receipt of a wire from the grand secretary stating that the supplies for the new Elks lodge could not reach Ada in time to institute it the 18th as first announced. The meeting is therefore postponed until the evening of Tuesday April 23, 1914.

NEW YORKER FALLS FOR BUNGO GAME

New York, April 15.—In view of the high reputation for shrewdness and business acumen which American merchants in general and the heads of large corporations in particular enjoy throughout the world, it seems almost incredible that two men of smooth address and persuasive tongue could succeed in obtaining $100,000 in good American money from a big industrial corporation without giving anything in return. Yet, this very thing happened here recently.

About two months ago two men who said they were Englishmen, sought an interview with the president of a large lithographing company in this city. They informed that gentleman that they had perfected a method of making lithographic plates at one-tenth the cost of the present method and far more speedy. They showed samples of work which, they said, had been made by their process and the president of the lithographing company became very favorably impressed with their proposition. They offered to sell him the rights to their invention for $100,000, one half of that amount to be paid at the time of the sale, the other half two months later.

The president, after some further negotiations, agreed to the proposition and paid to the men $50,000. After two months they called for the rest of the money, received it and promptly departed for Europe on the next steamer, without having fulfilled their part of the agreement. Not until after their departure did the president become suspicious. He made an investigation and found that the men were not Englishmen, but were two New Yorkers who had come to the city for the purpose of obtaining money from a big industrial corporation without giving anything in return.

LIKE STROKE OF LIGHTNING

Veteran Soldier Tells How Wound Affects Fighter on the Field of Battle.

General Miles in his book, "Serving the Republic," says that, like every other soldier who has seen much active service, he is often asked how it feels to be wounded. He himself was wounded four times, and twice almost fatally, so he is able to speak from experience. He says: "One is often asked how it seems to be wounded in battle. The flight of a bullet is quicker than thought, and has passed through a flesh wound before one realizes that he has been struck. I have seen bodies of men dead on the field of battle where the brain had been pierced and death had been instantaneous. They would remain in every position of the manual of arms, with an anxious look, a frown or a smile on their cold and rigid faces. My wounds received at Fair Oaks, Fredericksburg and Petersburg were flesh wounds, and disabled me but a short time. While riding down the line at Chancellorsville one of the enemy's bullets struck my metallic belt plate with great force. This caused a slight deviation as it entered the body. The result was an instant deadly sickening sensation; my sword dropped from my right hand, my scabbard and belt dropped to the left; I was completely paralyzed below the waist. My horse seemed to realize what had occurred; he stopped, turned and walked slowly back—I holding to the pomel of the saddle with my hands. We soon reached a group of soldiers, who took me off and, placing me in a blanket, carried me to the Chancellorsville House, and pulled a dead man off a couch to make room for me."

MOSE NOT HARD TO SATISFY

As Far as Prisoner Was Concerned, He Was Willing to Let the Matter Drop.

Bozeman Bulger, a baseball writer, says that in his home town, down in Southern Alabama, a negro was brought into court to answer a charge of murder.

"Mose Tupper," said the judge, contemplating the prisoner over his spectacles, "you are accused here of one of the most serious crimes known to our laws—twice, the taking of a human life. Are you properly represented by counsel?"

"No, suh," said the darky cheerfully.

"Well, have you talked to any one about your defense since your arrest?"

"I told the sheriff about the shooting when he come to my cabin to fetch me heah," said the prisoner—"but tha's all."

"And have you taken no steps what ever to engage a lawyer?"

"No, suh," said Mose. "I ain't got no money to be wastin' on lawyers. Dey tell me lawyers is mighty costly."

"If you have no funds," insisted the judge, "it lies within the power of the court to appoint an attorney to defend you without charge."

"You needn't be botherin' yo'self, Judge," answered Mose.

"Well, what do you propose to do about this case?" demanded his honor.

"Judge," said the negro, "ez fur ez Ise concerned yo kin jes' let de matter drop!"—Saturday Evening Post.

Why He Was Not Guilty.

"Little X," says a writer in the Army and Navy Journal, "was one of the most popular of our young officers in the army maneuvers at — during 1910. He had served in the cavalry and had brought with him the cavalry swagger, wore his campaign hat turned up in front and rear, and is said to have slept in his spurs. Our lieutenant colonel, whose treatment of younger officers had made him most unpopular, was then in command of the regiment.

"One day Little X passed the Colonel's tent while the old man was standing out in front looking for trouble. He spotted X and sent his orderly for him. 'Mister X,' said the colonel as Johnny saluted and brought his heels together with the approved click. 'Mister X, you appear to have a touch of the outbre about you. 'Why, colonel,' said X, 'you must be mistaken; I haven't had a drink since I came to camp.'"

Laying Something by for Future.

The general prosperity can only be a reflection of the prosperity of the individual, and no individual is really prosperous who is not laying aside something for the future. The man who makes $10,000 per year and spends $10,000 is poorer than the man who makes $1,000 and spends but $900. It may be hard to walk while your neighbor whisks by in an automobile, but it is the man who has the courage and character to live well within his means who accumulates enough capital to do things in the world.—Indianapolis Star.

Preservative for Eggs.

Please let me know what is best to preserve eggs so that they could be held in good condition and kept for market when prices are right.—J. H. H., Okfuskee County.

The best thing I know of to preserve eggs is a water-glass solution. Water-glass (soluble silicate of sodium) is a pale, yellow, odorless, syrupy liquid. It may be obtained from most druggists at from 60 cents to 95 cents per gallon. For use stir one part of the water-glass, by measure, into three parts of water, either hot or cold. If mixed hot allow the mixture to thoroughly before using.

Pink Eye in Chickens.

"As our chickens have been getting the pink eye, I would like you to tell us how to cure them."

You can cure the pink eye in your chickens by dipping their heads in a solution of permanganate of potash and water. Make the solution a deep purple red, and then dip the bird's heads in this solution. If you keep permanganate of potash in the drinking water—just enough that it makes the water a nice wine red—you will keep down the spread of the disease among other members of your flock.

NORRIS CASE MAY COME TO AN END THIS WEEK

Fort Worth, Tex., April 15.—The principal features Saturday in the case against the Rev. J. Frank Norris, charged with perjury, were an attack on the testimony of Clarence Ousley, foreman of the grand jury that indicted Mr. Norris and the beginning of the introduction of handwriting experts in an effort to show that Mr. Norris did not write the letters that the state is making an effort to prove that he did write.

The leading attorney for the defense, O. W. Gillespie, said last night that he believed the defense would end the introduction of testimony Tuesday, and said that he thought both sides would have rested by Wednesday night. The latter statement is questioned by many who have followed the case, however, as the belief is prevalent that both sides will occupy at least as much time with rebuttal testimony as with presentation of the direct case.

Mr. Gillespie also said last night that the defense was well pleased with what had developed thus far in the case. He said that Mrs. Norris, wife of the defendant, would be placed on the stand, but said no decision had been reached as to whether Mr. Norris himself would be a witness in his own defense.

As it is more than probable that most of Monday will be taken up with the testimony of experts, the belief is that if Mrs. Norris is placed on the stand it will be Tuesday—that is, in case the defense closes its case on that day.

Among the officers to be elected this year in Oklahoma are 22 members of the state senate, 98 members of the house of representatives, 8 congressmen; 5 by district and 3 at large, 1 United States senator, 1 member of the criminal court of appeals and 1 member of the state corporation commission, 10 presidential electors, and 1,064 county officers, besides a large number of town, township and school district officers.

The Perpetual Change.

The things of the world are ever rising and falling, and in perpetual change; and this change must be according to the will of God, as he has bestowed upon man neither the wisdom nor the power to enable him to check it. The great lesson in these things is that man must strengthen himself doubly at such times to fulfill his duty, and to do what is right, and must seek his happiness and inward peace from objects which cannot be taken away from him.—William von Humboldt.
